INDIANAPOLIS MARKETS.

Business Improving and the Tendency i

Values Still Upward on Most Lines.

Very seldom is it, said one of the oldest merchants, to-day, that the markets present so promising an outlook as at the present time. Prices on most staple articles have an upward tendency, crops are good, money plenty, and retail men are disposed to stock up liberally. Dry-goods men reported several buyers in and prices firm.

Grocers were fairly busy, and prices carry a strong tone, with an advancing rather than a declining tendency. The New York Bulletin of the 19th says: "Holders of bulk lots continue to express a great deal of faith in the situation, and in natural order the idea obtained regarding most general groceries is cheerful. We are not indifferent to the fact that such would be a sort of natural experience from the sellers' side of the market in any case, but, making due allowance for such a presentation of views, there is no doubt that most of the features and influences fairly suggest a healthy and satisfactory trade throughout the balance of the open season, and possibly well into mid-winter. Possibly, and very probably, some articles will experience quiet periods, even to dullness at times, but in the end a full complement of good appears likely to find an outlet, and at satisfactory rates.

The produce markets were active to-day and strong prices ruled. Hens and chick ens, eggs and butter all advanced and are decidedly firm at the quotations. The seed men are busy, and prices rule steady at the

The offerings of wheat are very light, and as a consequence prices rule firm. The receipts of corn are larger, and with this prices range slightly lower. Oats are in moderate request. Bids

Reading, 12,310; St. Faul, 6,858. The stock market to-day remained in the dull and listless state into which it has fallen, and outside of one or two stocks in the regular list and the trusts, presented no feature of interest. The opening was extremely dull and fairly steady, with the dealings almost ex-clusively professional, and the fluctuations were confined to the usual limits of small fractions. The coal stocks were the strong feature, and Jersey Central moved up on good buying, supposed to be for insiders, which was accompanied by rumors of arrangements which would largely increase the company's coal tonnage, though they could not be confirmed. The stock touched $1.21. Northern Pacific preferred was weak again, the impression being created in some quarters that a serious disagreement had taken place in the directory, and the hope which had been indulged in of dividends upon the preferred stock on Jan. 1 were given up. This caused some selling, and the stock was the only one in the regular list which showed any decided weakness, dropping over 1 cent. The grangers were generally quiet but firm, and the earnings of Northwestern, showing a gain of 12 per cent., were well received. Louisville & Nashville was rather strong, and crossed 77 again, but fluctuated over an extremely narrow range for the most active stock of the day. Sugar Trust sold ex. dividend, and became a mark for the "bears," who hammered it down 212 per cent. on the reiteration of the old rumors of an issue of bonds. Cotton Oil was also specially weak, and dropped over 1 per cent., though it was intimated to-day that the block of stock which has been on the market had been nearly closed out. The general list, after a steady opening, was dull but firm in the forenoon, and fractional advances were the rule, but the dullness and the weakness in the leading shares induced some selling by the smaller holders, and the list sagged away again later in the day. The close was dull and heavy at insignificant changes, though declines were more numerous. Jersey Cantral was up 13s, but Northern Pacific preferred was down 11s, Sugar Trust 24 and Cotton Oil 118. Railroad bonds were dull, and the only feature was the renewed activity and strength in the Kansas & Texas issues, the sixes contributing $141,000 to the day's total of only $660,000. The rest of the issues traded in show generally a reactionary spirit, and the final changes are, in most cases, in the direction of lower prices. Milwaukee, Lake Shore & Western firsts rose 312, to 128. Government bonds were dull and weak.

State bonds were dull but firm. Closing quotations were:

TRADING AT CHICAGO.

The Ups and Downs of the Market with the Range in Prices of Leading Articles. CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—To-day's receipts of wheat overran the estimates a little, but out of the 171 cars reported not a bushel graded No. 2. This remarkable showing for the season, together with the posting of unusually large flour exports at Baltimore set the pace for another bull turn in the pit. Opening figures for the leading futures were 4@3sc above yesterday's closing, with September 34c higher. December and May, in which most of the trading was done, eased off 1se and then advanced irregularly 12c, December selling up to 805sc and May to 84@841sc. A large business was transacted on the advance. "Shorts" covered freely and coupled with the demand from this quarter was large and general buying by local houses upon the market weakening a fraction. It was further depressed just before the close by the selling of a half million December in large blocks at 797sc by a heavy old "bear" operator who has been out of the market for some time. The close was weak with the early advance all lost. The closing quotations were 14@12c below those of yesterday. A very good business was transacted in corn, the market ruling active at times. The feeling early was firm, but as the session advanced a weaker tone was developed and trading was at lower prices. The market opened firm at yesterday's closing prices, influenced mainly by the advance in wheat, and prices advanced \(^1_8\alpha\) \(^1_4\)c, but when the estimates for to-morrow became known offerings became heavy and prices declined \(^3_8\alpha\) \(^5_8\)c, ruled easy, and closed \(^1_8\alpha\) \(^1_2\)c lower than yesterday. Trading was a little more animated in oats to-day, a firmer feeling pre-vailing early. Later, however, the demand fell off, the market became weak, and prices receded. May received the most attention, and fluctuated 4c. Trading in attention, and fluctuated 4c. Trading in pork was a little more active, and the feeling was somewhat unsettled. Near deliveries were easy early, and declined 25@35c, but rallied again and closed steady. An unusually quiet feeling prevailed in lard. Offerings were small on speculative account, and the demand was limited. Trading was only moderate in short ribs. Near deliveries were easy early, and prices receded .0212@

.05c, but rallied to medium figures and closed steady. Deferred deliveries were rather quiet at former prices. The leading futures ranged as follows: Options. | Open'a. | Highest. | Lowest. | Closing.

DUN & CO.'S WEEKLY REVIEW. Business Continues to Improve, Though the Buoyancy of Speculation Is Not Sustained.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.-R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "Throughout the country the state of business is encouraging, and the only disheartening features are in connection with speculative operations. Stocks have not quite maintained the recent advance, the chief cause being the Western railroad wars. Speculation in breadstuffs and cotton has been at a slightly lower range of prices, but, with moderate transactions and slackness of the consumptive demand, causes a weaker tone in the coffee and sugar markets, without material change in prices. Oil speculation is a shade stronger, and provisions steady. At Boston a conservative feeling still rules money market, and business has not wholly recovered from recent set-backs, but is improving in wool and steady in leather and lumber. At Philadelphia the jobbing dry goods trade continues good, the grocery trade improves, exceeding last year's, the paper trade decidedly revives, the liquor trade is active, and drugs and chemicals moderately active, but in wool there is very little movement. At Chicago there is a decline of receipts of wool and of grain, higher prices for wheat leading farmers to hold back, but a large increase in provisions. For the year thus far the trade exceeds last year's. Milwaukee reports constantly improving business, Kansas City reports business and collections a fair average for the season, and Cleveland increased activity, especially in iron and ore, At Omaha great crops give good business and collections, and at Pittsburg improvement is seen in Bessemer iron and steel, in coke and coal, with resumption of glass-works at 5½ per cent. higher wages. Southern prospects, also, are all encouraging as to crops and present trade. There is nowhere any stringency of money, the supply being ample for legitimate needs. Foreign exchange has dropped 12 cent, and possibilities of gold exports appear more remote, while merchandise exports for three weeks exceed last year's by 32 per cent.. the increase in imports meanwhile being but 3 per cent. The Treasury, also, has been so managed that its actual holdings of cash are $600,000 lower than last Saturday.
Thus far the New York banks have been able to meet all demands for the interior without disturbance, but it is not forgotten that the demands are not yet over; the reserves are low, and there is no present prospect of supplies from abroad.

The great industries appear to be gradually improving in condition. While the improvement is slow in wool manufacture, there is always a service always are not in a demand of the condition. there is clearly a more active demand at Boston, and sales of wool there this week are 3,258,000 pounds. But the larger move-ment, mainly in fine washed fleece, has been secured by concession in price. The goods market is still uncertain. Jobbers hold considerable stocks made from cheaper wool, which have to be cleared off before adjustment of the market to the present price of material is possible, and meanwhile, a pressure to sell may prevent an advance. In the iron business confusion increases because Southern coke No. 1 foundry is offered at $16.75 for delivery to the end of January. while anthracite No. 1 sells at $17 to $18, and higher for special brands. Large contracts for structural iron in Chicago and St. Louis elevated roads have been taken in eastern Pennsylvania, and the orders for rails on the books Sept. 1 were 1,135,000 tons, quotations here being still unchanged. Copper has re-mained dull, and though five hundred tons of tin are reported on the way, spot is still quoted at 21.87 cents. The partial failure of the potato and fruit crops and the injury to butter by recent storms, caused an advance in prices and the general average for commodities is now about 1 per cent. higher than Sept. 1. The unprecedented movement of cattle and fresh beef to England attracts much attenfresh beef to England attracts much attention, the exports having been over 90,000 head of cattle and 40,000,000 pounds of fresh beef within three months ended with August, beside 34,000,000 pounds cured or canned beef. And it is noteworthy that the export trade, though barely maintained in some important branches, steadily broadens by large increase in minor items not hitherto important.

The business failures number 198, compared with a total of 198 last week and 201 the week previous. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 228.

Household Hints. The hooks or nails in closets may be prevented from ever rusting anything hung on them, by the simple plan of each being covered by an old kid-glove finger neatly

Mince cold steak or cold beef, free it from every particle of fat and sinew season with pepper, salt and a little minced onion; place in a dish buttered and lined with cold macaroni stewed or baked, pour over it cold gravy or soup stock, or a spoonful of Liebig's extract of beef in a little hot water. Cover with bread crumbs barely moistened in a little hot milk, into which two spoonfuls of butter has been stirred Bake half an hour; serve it with tomato

There need never be wasted a crumb of good wheat loaf bread. It may be sliced when very stale, and with broken pieces, that would be otherwise wasted, put into a dripping-pan and set in a moderate oven to thoroughly dry, but not scorch. When pounded and rolled, put in a covered box curely tie in a paper bag read in puddings, griddle-cakes, dressing and stuffing poultry and breading meats; for the last it must be rolled very fine. A dish is not only rendered more savory with a dressing, but is economical, as it goes fur-

A pretty sachet-bag may be made as follows: Take two equal lengths of contrasting ribbons, lay them together, cord to cord and, with an open button-hole stitch, join them together, leaving about three inches loose at each end. Then double them back to form a bag, leaving the under ends a little longer than those meant for the top. Then button-hole stitch the sides together. Next fill with cotton, placing your sachet powder therein. Tie together your sachet powder therein. Tie together with narrow ribbon at the top, where the loose ends begin, making a dainty little bow.

Prof. E. W. Stewart, in the Country Gen-tleman, tells how to put flesh on either a poor or an old animal: "Cut clover hay short, say one-half inch, take cheap mo-lasses and dissolve one pint in one gallon of water and sprinkle this upon three pounds of the cut clover with two pounds of buck-wheat flour and two pounds of wheat bran. Feed this amount to each horse or animal three times a day, commencing with a lit-tle less per day for two days." The Pro-fessor says he put one hundred pounds additional weight upon a horse thin in flesh in thirty days by feeding him said Good Housekeeping says: Economy can be promoted greatly by using beef fat for cooking. It is a clean. Wholesome fat and healthier than lard. It can be substituted for butter in making gingerbread, snaps, spiced cakes, and in all plain cakes it can replace one-half the butter. Beef fat makes a good shortening for the crust of meat pies, but cannot be used for puff paste. Beef fat, too, is the best for frying in a pan, and when deep fat is desired, it should be mixed with the lard. Beef fat costs but a trifle and the butcher always gives a piece with all orders. Fry it out without burning, then strain it and keep in a cool place and cream it with sugar or rub it into flour exactly as if it were butter.

Wonderful Wood Heater.

It is the Poor Man's Friend! The Rich Man's Economizer! A BASE BURNER in the fullest meaning of the term, Retains fire from 12 to 48 hours. It or dry. Two or three cords of four-foot wood cut once in two is sufficient for an ordinary winter. It consumes its own ashes, throws no sparks to fire your building, but retains the heat in the room. It is clean, no dirt, gas or dust to annoy. Requires no kindling of mornings, always having plenty of fire and a warm room. It is as well adapted for school or office rooms as for the family. As a fact, it is the grandest stove of the age, and any one having used this stove cannot be induced to do without it. Corners on Coal have no no effect on the OWEN STOVE.
